

Questions

1. According to the article... How old were the youngest children who worked in factories?
  - A. Seven
  - B. Eight
  - C. Six
  - D. Twelve

2. The article states that it was not uncommon for children to work at least how many hours in the factories per day?
  - A. Eleven
  - B. Eight
  - C. Twelve
  - D. Seventeen

3. What improved the working conditions of children?
  - A. Nothing
  - B. Factory Act of 1833
  - C. Factory Act of 1933
  - D. None of the Above

4. What type of child was really treated poorly in the early factories?
  - A. Young children
  - B. Orphans
  - C. Dead children
  - D. Ugly children

5. What was the purpose of being "weighted?"
  - A. To inflict pain
  - B. To make someone look embarrassed in front of everyone else
  - C. So other children could "take example?"
  - D. Both A & C

6. According to the last few sentences of the passage... What seemed to be very important for factory owners back in the early days of industry?
  - A. That children were on time for work
  - B. That children had no place at work
  - C. That work was meant for children
  - D. That factories should be made more harsh