

Review Guide- Standard 6: Revolutions and Rebellions

1. Louis the XIV, the Sun King, is the best example of an ____ monarch.		14. The Constitution created a ____ system in which certain powers are held by the federal government and other powers are reserved for the state governments.
2. Who was the leader of the Roundhead Parliament?		15. Which document officially ended the American Revolution and formally declared the United States as an independent nation?
3. William and Mary signed the ____ of ____ making England a constitutional monarchy.		16. The injustice economic system that inspired the French Revolution forced the ____ estate to pay high taxes.
4. What war began on an English monarch's decision to arrest Puritan leaders in Parliament?		17. The storming of the ____, an ancient prison, was one of the first events of the French Revolution.
5. Who was the monarch that issued the Edict of Nantes?		18. What is the period-during the French Revolution that resulted in the execution of over 17,000 people?
6. What is the third step of the Scientific Method?		19. Who was the military leader that would be self-crowned the Emperor of France?
7. The Scientific Revolution was a new way of thinking that emerged in the mid-1500s that was based on ____ and reason.		20. True or False: One of the lasting effects of the French Revolution is that it inspired people to fight for their rights around the world.
8. Who was the scientist who was forced, by the Church, to recant his heliocentric theory?		21. Factors were located near what natural resource?
9. John Locke argued that people had the right to abolish their government if the government does not protect their ____ rights.		22. Industrialization undercut the prices of the products produced by ____ industry workers.
10. Who is the author of the "Two Treatises on Government?"		23. The ____ movement opposed industrial changes that had displaced the work of weavers.
11. What was the act that required colonists to pay a tax for an official stamp on newspapers, legal documents and public papers?		24. What country was able to quickly industrialize due to its wealth of natural resources and large labor force?
12. Thomas Jefferson wrote the first draft of the ____ of ____.		25. _____ replaced the _____ in _____.
13. What was the document that became a part of the US Constitution in order to protect the rights of the individual?			